Love Wins In Windsor

Welcome to our 3rd Windsor Annual Pride Festival!

Today, we gather in celebration—
not just of Pride, but of community, resilience, and the power of inclusive joy.

Love Wins in Windsor is proud to be Sonoma County's family-inclusive Pride Festival.

That doesn't mean we water anything down—it means we open the door wider.

We've shifted our focus this year to reflect that commitment: replacing the VIP lounge and winegarten with a vibrant Kids Zone, expanding our activities for all ages, and creating a space where families of every kind can show up as their full, authentic selves.

Pride is for everyone, from toddlers with rainbow face paint to elders who marched long before it was safe.

In a time when the political tide is pulling backward—threatening hard-fought rights for our queer and trans community—we know we must stay vigilant, informed, and united.

But we also know that joy is a form of resistance, and days like today are essential.

We gather not to escape the challenges, but to affirm what we're fighting for: visibility, safety, equality, and love.

So welcome—whether you're here to dance, to grieve, to heal, to laugh, or simply to belong.

This space is yours.

This day is ours. Love wins.

Pastor Mary Beene

Windsor Presbyterian Church

Rev. Mary Beene is pastor of Windsor Presbyterian Church, a proud sponsor of Windsor PRIDE. She is also the owner/founder of Openings: Let the Spirit In, which works with individuals and organizations seeking deeper spiritual meaning and effective living that integrates personal and professional values and goals. She calls that work of Spiritual Direction "Executive Coaching for the Soul," and has worked with people on all kinds of spiritual journeys, including atheists and people hurt by traditional church organizations. She believes that we change the world for the better when we work on ourselves, learn to live well with our neighbors, and build up our spiritual competencies. She loves Jesus, her family, her dog, and all the ways she's been able to connect in the Windsor community.

Flowers & Gifts are creating a special love wins experience at this year's Windsor Pride

Festival. Under an arch of flowers you can pledge your love to a special someone --

your spouse, your mom or dad,

your child, your friend, all in the name of love.

Five minute ceremonies can include sacred or secular language of your choice. Make it as solemn or silly as you choose, as we recommit to love in 2025.

About the People4Parks Foundation

OUR MISSION

People4Parks makes life in Windsor better for all by:

- financially supporting Windsor parks, people, and places
- building community through events and activities inclusive of all people in our park spaces
- supporting community projects that beautify and enhance Windsor's parks and public spaces

All traceable donations are tax-deductible and benefit Windsor parks and recreation activities of all varieties. We are currently raising funds to support the new Windsor Pickleball Court at Hiram Lewis Park, the Painted Piano Project, several new murals around the Town, the Community Healing Project, the Windsor Pride Festival, and several local LGBTQIA+ nonprofit organizations.
